

SUMMER SCHOOL in Agroecology and Sustainable Food Systems at Isara Lyon, France

June 11- July 15, 2020

Linguistic & Cultural Program

Visits

- Lyon, UNESCO World Heritage site
- Vallée du Rhône Vineyards
- Cheese makers in the Alps
- Regional Companies & industries :
Chocolate factory...
- Tasting & cooking of traditionnal
French foods
- Dinner in a lyonnaise Family

French courses & intercultural seminar

Academic Program

Lectures, Case studies, workshops

- Agroecology and agroecological practices
- Cropping and livestock farming systems in mountains
- Urban farming
- Traditional, local food systems and quality labels
- Supervised personal work
- Seminar presentation

Fieldtrips

- Traditional fish production
- Agroecological livestock systems in mountains
- Conservation biological control in cropping system

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

Sustainable Agriculture & Food Systems

Applying agroecological practices

Plant protection in vegetable production

Managing biodiversity

Fish pond systems in agricultural landscapes

Diversifying food systems

Economy of sustainable food systems (Alps)

Who is eligible ?

Undergraduate students with major in science or humanities

Credits : 9 European Credits (ECTS)
Upon completion of program

www.isara.fr
www.iplsummerschool.com

