

Baden-Württemberg Universities Overview (IE₃ Global exchange program)

Academic Calendar information:

Year-long and winter semester (fall/winter) students may choose from any of the 15 different universities listed below. Summer semester (spring) students may typically choose from 4 universities: Heidelberg, Konstanz, Ludwigsburg, or Tübingen. In Baden-Württemberg, the winter semester runs from October-February and the summer semester runs from April-July. The only exception is Mannheim, where the fall semester runs from September-December, and the spring semester from February-May.

Orientation information:

Students who begin the program in the fall (except those studying in Ludwigsburg or Mannheim) will attend a 4-day orientation in Tübingen in late August, followed by a September intensive German language course at the BW university at which they plan to study for the semester or year. Students who begin the program in the spring will go straight to their respective university.

For more program information, including requirements and how to start an application, visit www.ie3global.org.

UNIVERSITY	ACADEMICS	CITY	HOUSING	TERMS	OTHER INFO
University of Tübingen www.uni-tuebingen.de/ Student pop. 28,500 ~3,500 international	Founded in 1477, Tübingen is among the oldest in Germany and has an international reputation for excellence in medicine, natural sciences and the humanities. Tübingen also has faculties of Law, Business, Pharmacy, Modern Languages, Geosciences and more. Tübingen offers a wide selection of German language (DaF) courses.	Tübingen is a vibrant university town with old and distinguished academic flair including liberal politics and German-style fraternities as well as rural, agricultural and typical Swabian elements. The city contains many picturesque buildings from previous centuries, and lies on the Neckar river. Pop. 86,000	Single rooms in student housing. There are several different dorms throughout Tübingen and Oregon students usually are spread out among them.	year fall/winter spring	The Oregon Study Center (office of the Resident Director) is located in Tübingen. The 4-day orientation takes place here. Students who plan to take German as a foreign language courses can study in Tübingen having completed only 1 year of college-level German.
University of Konstanz www.uni-konstanz.de Student pop. 11,700 ~1,100 international	Founded in 1966. Has a modern campus. Courses in most liberal arts and natural sciences are offered, as well as programs in economics, law, and public policy and management.	Located on south bank of Lake Constance close to the Alps, Konstanz is an important cultural and economic center and the gateway to neighboring Switzerland. The mild lake climate gives the city an almost Mediterranean flair Pop. 80,000	Single rooms in student housing. There are a few different options, some within walking distance from campus, others easily accessible by bus.	year fall/winter spring	Konstanz usually offers one "Landesstiftung" stipend of about Euro 400/month to an Oregon student. Students who plan to take German as a foreign language courses can study in Konstanz having completed only 1 year of college-level German.

UNIVERSITY	ACADEMICS	CITY	HOUSING	TERMS	OTHER INFO
University of Heidelberg www.uni-heidelberg.de Student pop. 31,500 ~5,400 international	Excellent offerings in humanities, natural and social sciences. Offers a variety of German as a Second Language (DaF) classes and many other modern languages.	Picturesque town that attracts students and tourists from all over the world. Situated halfway between Stuttgart and Frankfurt. Layout of city is easy to follow which makes study and life easier. City lies amid magnificent scenery. Pop. 150,000	Single rooms in student housing. Heidelberg students are often placed in the Altstadt (old city center) and sometimes also a bit further from the city center, but public transportation is excellent.	year fall/winter spring	Oldest university in Germany (founded 1386).
University of Education Ludwigsburg (PH Ludwigsburg) www.ph-ludwigsburg.de Student pop. 5,000 ~190 international	Teacher education university with broad range of science and liberal arts courses well suited for undergraduates. Small university with a campus setting, the PH is a more alike the regional institutions in Oregon.	Ludwigsburg is a smaller city located about 12 km north of the Stuttgart city center. Ludwigsburg is well known for its baroque royal palace. Pop. 90,000	Single rooms in student housing near the campus. Ludwigsburg also has a cheaper housing option if you are willing to share a room with another student.	year fall/winter spring The Ludwigsburg program in the fall will begin in October with an intensive language course offered by the University. Ludwigsburg students will not participate in the 4-day orientation in Tübingen.	PH Ludwigsburg usually offers 2-3 "Landesstiftung" stipends of about Euro 300/month to Oregon students. Art/music majors can find courses in art and music not available at regular German universities.
University of Mannheim www.uni-mannheim.de/1/ Student pop. 12,000	Famous for its top ranked programs in business and economics. It also has a law school and offers studies in the humanities, social sciences, mathematics and computer science. Has good selection of undergraduate (mostly business) courses taught in English.	Second largest city in Baden-Württemberg; short light rail ride from Heidelberg. The city is very modern and metropolitan compared to other more picturesque German cities. The main route through the squares leads to an enormous 18th century palace, which houses the University of Mannheim. Pop. 300,000	Single rooms in student housing. Mannheim student housing has been tight in recent years, so you will need to apply as early as possible.	year fall The Mannheim program in the fall will begin in August with a month-long intensive language course offered by the University. Mannheim students will not participate in the Tübingen orientation.	Academic calendar different from other BW universities: fall semester runs from September to December; spring semester from February to May. Students planning on studying in English can study at Mannheim having taken only one year of college-level German. Studies at the Business School require previous completion of upper-division business courses.

UNIVERSITY	ACADEMICS	CITY	HOUSING	TERMS	OTHER INFO
University of Freiburg www.uni-freiburg.de Student pop. 24,700 ~3,600 international students	Founded in 1457, the university offers a wide range of courses in the liberal arts and sciences. It also offers degrees in theology, law, business, medicine, pharmacy, earth sciences and forestry.	Set in beautiful valley at edge of Black Forest. Known as the sunniest and warmest city in Germany. Just a short hop to both Switzerland and France. Known for its solar industries and research, Freiburg has recently been renowned as an “eco-city.” Pop. 230,000	Single rooms in student housing. Most Oregon students stay in the so-called Stüsi, which is centrally located.	year fall/winter	Freiburg usually offers one “Landesstiftung” stipend of Euro 600/month to an Oregon student. Many American students study in Freiburg.
University of Education Freiburg (PH Freiburg) www.ph-freiburg.de Student pop. 4,000	Teacher education university with good selection of science and liberal arts courses well suited for undergraduates.	See above. Located about 20 minutes from the Freiburg city center.	Single rooms in student housing.	year fall/winter	Art and music majors can also find courses in fine art and music not available at the regular German universities. Offers “Landesstiftung” stipend.
Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT) www.kit.edu Student pop. 24,500 ~4,000 international	KIT is a leading research university particularly attractive to students in engineering, natural sciences, computer science, architecture and economics. Courses in the humanities and social sciences are also available. Many undergraduate engineering courses offered in English.	Located near French border, the city is crossed by the 49th parallel. Karlsruhe is the seat of the German Federal Constitutional Court (Bundesverfassungsgericht) and the highest Court of Appeals in civil and criminal cases, the Bundesgerichtshof. Pop. 296,000	Single rooms in student housing.	year fall/winter	There are very few American students studying at KIT. A good option for those looking for true language and cultural immersion.
University of Ulm www.uni-ulm.de Student pop. 10,000	University was founded in 1967 and focuses on the sciences, medicine, engineering, mathematics and economics. There are some DaF (Deutsch als Fremdsprache) courses available, but the selection is more limited than at other universities.	Located on the river Danube, Ulm is in the eastern part of Baden-Württemberg, bordering the state of Bavaria. Ulm is known for its gothic cathedral (the tallest church in the world) and as the birthplace of Albert Einstein. Pop. 125,000	Single rooms in student housing.	year fall/winter	Ulm is currently offering a Euro 400/month “Landesstiftung” stipend to one Oregon student.

UNIVERSITY	ACADEMICS	CITY	HOUSING	TERMS	OTHER INFO
University of Stuttgart www.uni-stuttgart.de/home/ Student pop. 22,600 ~4,600 international	Primarily a technical university with excellent offerings in science, engineering, business, architecture and urban planning. Good but limited offerings in the liberal arts. Offers variety of DaF (German as a Second Language) courses. Several graduate degree programs in the sciences and engineering are offered in English.	Capital of Baden-Württemberg and its largest city. Area known for its high-tech and automotive industries. City also known for its vibrant cultural life. Although city center was heavily damaged during World War II, many historic buildings have been reconstructed, and the city boasts of some fine pieces of modern post-war architecture. Pop. 600,000	Single rooms in student housing either downtown (Max-Kade-Heim) or a bit outside the city center in very nice apartment-style housing at the Stuttgart-Vaihingen campus.	year fall/winter	Stuttgart is best suited for students with higher level of German as DaF (German language courses) are more challenging.
Media University Stuttgart (HdM) www.hdm-stuttgart.de/ Student pop. 4,500	Good option for students in Digital Communication Arts or Graphic Design. Choose from variety of courses including audiovisual media, digital design, advertising & print – some in English.	Hohenheim is a suburb of Stuttgart. The university is housed in a beautiful castle.	Single rooms in student housing. HdM shares dorm space with the University of Stuttgart.	year fall/winter	HdM may offer a “Landesstiftung” stipend to one Oregon student. Students planning on studying in English can study at the Media University Stuttgart having taken only one year of college-level German.
University of Hohenheim www.uni-hohenheim.de Student pop. 10,000 ~1,200 international	Excellent programs in agricultural sciences, natural sciences, biology, economics and social sciences. May be of special interest to students in food science including fermentation science, communications, journalism and economics. Several courses taught in English.	Hohenheim is a suburb of Stuttgart. The university is housed in a beautiful castle.	Single rooms in student housing. Hohenheim has very nice and unique dorms within walking distance of the campus.	year fall/winter	Students have the opportunity to take German as a Second Language (DaF) courses both at Hohenheim and at the University of Stuttgart. Hohenheim offers a Euro 600/month “Landesstiftung” stipend to one Oregon student.

UNIVERSITY	ACADEMICS	CITY	HOUSING	TERMS	OTHER INFO
Stuttgart Academy of the Arts www.abk-stuttgart.de/ Stuttgart Music Academy www.mh-stuttgart.de/ Trossingen Music Academy www.mh-trossingen.de/	In Germany, students studying music or art have to do so at an art or music academy. Usually, a portfolio/audition are required for admission. The admission process can be very competitive.	The Art and Music Academies are located in the center of Stuttgart (see description under "University of Stuttgart").	Single rooms in student housing.	year fall/winter	Students planning to apply should communicate their intention to their Study Abroad Advisor very early on since some advance planning will be necessary. A portfolio (art) or audition recording (music) is required and a completed application needs to be submitted early to be considered. Art and music students may also consider PH Ludwigsburg or PH Freiburg.